Amarr COSMOS – update 1

In the Araz constellation, ratting in belts produces the following COSMOS related loot drops, in addition to the normal there seems to be a much higher drop rate of Blood Bronze and Blood Silver tags amongst the rats here than with any o

The data is based on my own experiences in the constellation rather than having had access to any loot tables...

Aphi: Enigma Cypher Book (Collector & Diviner type), Encoding Matrix Component (all types)

Jakri: Encoding Matrix Component (all types)

Nidupad: Dynasty Ring (Raider type), Encoding Matrix Component (all types)

Koona: Encoding Matrix Component (all types)

Chanoun: Encoding Matrix Component (all types), Dynasty Ring (Raider type)

Garisas: Encoding Matrix Component (all types), Dynasty Ring (Raider type)

Zimse: Encoding Matrix Component (all types), at last belt there is a BS spawn and 'Drifting Cask' which contains '4 Fragment'.

The Dynasty Ring is required for a mission from Stem Robikar, 'Pawns on the board 2 of 5'. It is possible to buy these between 1 and 3 million ISK, but it will only take you 20 minutes at most to get a drop. You can rat before you accept th with you when you go to speak to the agent.

Came across a Sellsword Collector type rat a few times, which is a small Blood Commander. It dropped Dark Blood cry Talisman implants (1 in 4). Barrow Ferriers pop up occasionally, these drop minerals, either 20k of Pyerite, or 50k of '.
